Read on for all the details and information we need from you in order to...

- to create a professional personal or company profile, or
- to list a high-selling item for you online at hot-s-hot.com.

As a general rule:

In the DATING section, profiles are created for individuals and companies. It is perfect for finding partners or jobs, establishing business contacts, and recruiting employees. In the PROPERTY, MARKET, and VEHICLES sections, listings are created. These are perfect for selling services as well as products available for download, rental, or purchase.

Creating profiles and articles is very easy.

Everything works online, with selectable options, directly within your account. There are two different account types:

- If you are active in the DATING sector, the PRIVATEaccount is ideal for both personal and business-related partner searches, allowing you to post your profile. In the PROPERTY, MARKET, and VEHICLES sections, you can list items for free for up to three months. Should the sale of your private service or item take longer, it is very affordable to extend the duration of your profile or item listing for a small fee.
- The BUSINESSaccount is perfect for business owners! Whether you run a micro-enterprise, a service business, a skilled trade company, a manufacturing firm, a retail business, or a large corporation, you can set up your own online shop—tailored to your specific area of activity—in your chosen region or across all four regions, all for a very low monthly fee. Perfect, since you don't need any programming skills!

You can easily set everything up yourself and optimally plan your sales structure—even with various products or different sales structures!

Should you require assistance initially with setting up your account, profile, or items, hot-s-hot offers very affordable account support services.
